American Wolf
A True Story of Survival and Obsession in the West

Nate Blakeslee
Publicist: Sarah Breivogel | 212- 572-2722 | sbreivogel@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY
The enthralling story of the rise and reign of O-Six, the celebrated Yellowstone wolf, and the people who loved or feared her.

With novelistic detail, Nate Blakeslee tells the gripping story of a charismatic alpha wolf named O-Six. Uncommonly powerful, O-Six is a kind and merciful leader, a fiercely intelligent fighter, and a doting mother. She is beloved by wolf watchers and becomes something of a social media star, with followers around the world.

But as she raises her pups and protects her pack, O-Six is challenged on all fronts: by hunters who compete with wolves for the elk they both prize; by cattle ranchers who are losing livestock and have the ear of politicians; and by other Yellowstone wolves who are vying for control of the park’s stunningly beautiful Lamar Valley.

These forces collide in American Wolf, a riveting multigenerational saga of hardship and triumph that tells a larger story about the clash of values in the West—between those fighting for a vanishing way of life and those committed to restoring one of the country’s most iconic landscapes.

PRAISE FOR TULIA
"Tulia, in Blakeslee’s rich and deeply satisfying telling, resembles nothing so much as a modern-day To Kill a Mockingbird—or would, that is, if the novel were a true story and Atticus had won." —THE NEW YORK TIMES BOOK REVIEW

"[A] vivid portrait of law enforcement gone wrong... Excellent and eminently readable." —DAVID GARROW, Washington Post Book World
Artemis
A Novel

Andy Weir
Publicist: Sarah Breivogel | 212-572-2722 | sbreivogel@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY

Jazz Bashara is a criminal.

Well, sort of. Life on Artemis, the first and only city on the moon, is tough if you’re not a rich tourist or an eccentric billionaire. So smuggling in the occasional harmless bit of contraband barely counts, right? Not when you’ve got debts to pay and your job as a porter barely covers the rent.

Everything changes when Jazz sees the chance to commit the perfect crime, with a reward too lucrative to turn down. But pulling off the impossible is just the start of Jazz’s problems, as she learns that she’s stepped square into a conspiracy for control of Artemis itself—and that now, her only chance at survival lies in a gambit even more unlikely than the first.

SUMMARY

It has been 14 years since the Martians invaded England. The world has moved on, always watching the skies but content that we know how to defeat the Martian menace. Machinery looted from the abandoned capsules and war machines has led to technological leaps forward. The Martians are vulnerable to earth germs. The army is prepared. So when the signs of launches on Mars are seen, there seems little reason to worry—unless you listen to one man, Walter Jenkins, the narrator of Wells’s book. He is sure that the Martians have learned, adapted, understood their defeat. He is right. Thrust into the chaos of a new invasion, a journalist—sister-in-law to Walter Jenkins—must survive, escape, and report on the war. The Massacre of Mankind has begun.

The Far Away Brothers
Two Young Migrants and the Making of an American Life

Lauren Markham

Publicist: Penny Simon | 865-675-1705
psimon@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY

Twin brothers escape El Salvador’s violence to build new lives in California—fighting to stay and to survive.

In this urgent chronicle of contemporary immigration, journalist Lauren Markham follows the 17-year-old Flores twins as they flee the gangs threatening their lives in rural El Salvador, make their harrowing way across the Rio Grande and the Texas desert, and fall into the hands of immigration authorities—at which point their journey is far from over. Delivered to their estranged brother’s custody in Oakland, California, these unaccompanied minors are soon navigating a new school in a new language, working to pay down their mounting coyote debt, and facing their day in immigration court. With intimate access and breathtaking range, Markham offers a coming-of-age tale that is also a nuanced portrait of Central America’s child exodus, an investigation of U.S. policy, and an unforgettable testament to the migrant experience.

Fire on the Track
Betty Robinson and the Triumph of the Early Olympic Women

Roseanne Montillo
Publicist: Rebecca Welbourn | 212-782-9634
rwelbourn@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY
The inspiring and irresistible true story of the women who broke barriers and finish-line ribbons in pursuit of Olympic Gold.

When Betty Robinson assumed the starting position at the 1928 Olympic Games in Amsterdam, she was participating in what was only her fourth-ever organized track meet, yet she crossed the finish line as a gold medalist and the fastest woman in the world. But at the top of her game, her career (and life) almost came to a tragic end in a plane crash. While Betty was fighting to walk again, the other women of track and field were given the chance to shine in the Los Angeles Games, as stars like Babe Didrikson and Stella Walsh showed the world what women could do. A few years later—miraculously—through grit and countless hours of training, Betty earned her way onto the 1936 Olympic team, again locking her sights on gold as she and her American teammates went up against the German favorites in Hitler’s Berlin.

The Heart’s Invisible Furies
A Novel

John Boyne

Publicist: Rebecca Welbourn | 212-782-9634 | rwelbourn@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY

From the beloved New York Times bestselling author of The Boy in the Striped Pajamas, a sweeping, heartfelt saga about the course of one man’s life, beginning and ending in postwar Ireland.

Cyril Avery is not a real Avery—or at least, that’s what his adoptive parents tell him. And he never will be. But if he isn’t a real Avery, then who is he?

Born out of wedlock to a teenage girl cast out from her rural Irish town and adopted by an eccentric Dublin couple via the intervention of a hunchbacked Redemptorist nun, Cyril is adrift in the world, anchored only tenuously by his heartfelt friendship with the infinitely more glamorous and dangerous Julian Woodbead. At the mercy of fortune and coincidence, he will spend a lifetime coming to know himself and where he came from—and over his many years, will struggle to discover an identity, a home, a country, and much more.

In Boyne’s most transcendent work to date, we are shown the story of Ireland from the 1940s to today through the eyes of one ordinary man. The Heart’s Invisible Furies is a novel to make you laugh and cry while reminding us all of the redemptive power of the human spirit.

AUTHOR BIO

JOHN BOYNE is the author of 10 novels for adults, 5 for younger readers, and a collection of short stories. His 2006 novel, The Boy in the Striped Pajamas, was an international bestseller, selling more than 7 million copies worldwide and being made into a film, a play, a ballet, and an opera. DUNBAR

EDWARD ST. AUBYN

SUMMARY

A reimagining of one of Shakespeare’s most well-read tragedies, by the contemporary, critically acclaimed master of domestic drama.

Henry Dunbar, the once all-powerful head of a global media corporation, is not having a good day. In his dotage he hands over care of the corporation to his two eldest daughters, Abby and Megan, but as relations sour he starts to doubt the wisdom of past decisions.

Now imprisoned in Meadowmeade, an upscale sanatorium in rural England, with only a demented alcoholic comedian as company, Dunbar starts planning his escape. As he flees into the hills, his family is hot on his heels. But who will find him first, his beloved youngest daughter, Florence, or the tigresses Abby and Megan, so keen to divest him of his estate?

Edward St. Aubyn is renowned for his masterwork, the five Melrose novels, which dissect with savage and beautiful precision the agonies of family life. His take on King Lear, Shakespeare’s most devastating family story, is an excoriating novel for and of our times—an examination of power, money, and the value of forgiveness.

AUTHOR BIO

EDWARD ST. AUBYN was born in London. His acclaimed Patrick Melrose novels are Never Mind, Bad News, Some Hope, Mother’s Milk, which was shortlisted for the Man Booker Prize, and At Last. He is also the author of the novels A Clue to the Exit, On the Edge, which was shortlisted for the Guardian Fiction Prize and Lost for Words, which won the Bollinger Everyman Wodehouse Prize.
The Lesser Bohemians
A Novel
Eimear McBride
Publicist: Rachel Rokicki | 212- 782-8455
rrokicki@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY
The breathtaking new novel from Eimear McBride, about an extraordinary, all-consuming love affair.

Eimear McBride’s debut novel, A Girl Is a Half-Formed Thing, was published in 2013 to an avalanche of praise: nominated for a host of literary awards, winner of the Baileys Women’s Prize for Fiction and the inaugural Goldsmith’s Prize. And now, McBride brings her singular voice to an unlikely love story.

One night an 18-year-old Irish girl, attending a drama school in London, meets an older man—a well-regarded actor in his own right. While she is naive and thrilled by life in the big city, he is haunted by more than a few demons, and the relationship that ensues risks undoing them both. A story of passion and innocence set against the vibrant atmosphere of 1990s London, The Lesser Bohemians glows with the eddies and anxieties of growing up, and the transformative intensity of a powerful new love.

AUTHOR BIO
EIMEAR McBRIDE was born in 1976 and grew up in Ireland. She currently lives in Norwich with her family. The Lesser Bohemians is her second novel.

Human Acts
A Novel
Han Kang
Publicist: Rebecca Welbourn | 212-782-9634
rwelbourn@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY
From the bestselling author of The Vegetarian, a “rare and astonishing” (Observer) portrait of political unrest.

In the midst of a violent student uprising in South Korea, a young boy named Dong-ho is shockingly killed. The story of this tragic episode unfolds in a sequence of interconnected chapters as the victims and the bereaved encounter suppression, denial, and the echoing agony of the massacre. From Dong-ho’s best friend, who meets his own fateful end; to an editor struggling against censorship; to a prisoner and a factory worker, each suffering from trauma; to Dong-ho’s own mother; and through their collective heartbreak and hope is the tale of a brutalized people in search of a voice.

An award-winning, controversial bestseller, Human Acts is a timeless, pointillist portrait of an historic event with reverberations still being felt today, by turns tracing the reality of oppression and the extraordinary poetry of humanity.

AUTHOR BIO

She currently works as a professor in the department of creative writing at the Seoul Institute of the Arts.
The Sky Is Yours
A Novel
Chandler Klang Smith

Summary
A sprawling, genre-defying epic set in a dystopian metropolis plagued by dragons.

In the burned-out futuristic city of Empire Island, three young people—reality star Duncan Humphrey Ripple V, the spoiled scion of the metropolis’s last dynasty; Baroness Swan Lenore Dahlberg, his tempestuous, death-obsessed betrothed; and Abby, a feral beauty he discovered tossed out with the trash—are forced to flee everything they’ve ever known. As they wander toward the scalded heart of the city, they face fire, conspiracy, mayhem, unholy drugs, dragon-worshippers, and the monsters lurking inside themselves. In this bombshell of a novel, Chandler Klang Smith has imagined an unimaginable world: scathingly clever and gorgeously strange, The Sky Is Yours is at once faraway and disturbingly familiar, its singular chaos grounded in the universal realities of love, family, and the deeply human desire to survive at all costs.

My Story of Captivity, and My Fight Against the Islamic State

Nadia Murad

Publicist: Penny Simon | 865-675-1705 | psimon@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY
In this intimate memoir of survival, a former captive of the Islamic State tells her harrowing and ultimately inspiring story.

Nadia Murad was born and raised in Kocho, a small village of farmers and shepherds in Iraq. A member of the Yazidi community, she and her brothers and sisters lived a quiet life. Nadia had dreams of becoming a history teacher or opening her own beauty salon. When Nadia was just 21 years old, this life ended. Islamic State militants massacred the people of her village, executing men who refused to convert to Islam and women too old to become sex slaves. Six of Nadia’s brothers were killed, her mother soon after, and their bodies were swept into mass graves. Nadia was taken to Mosul and forced, along with thousands of other Yazidi girls, into the IS slave trade. She eventually managed a narrow escape, finding shelter in the home of a Sunni Muslim family whose eldest son risked his life to smuggle her to safety.

Today, Nadia’s story—as a witness to IS brutality, a survivor of rape, a refugee, a Yazidi—has forced the world to pay attention to the ongoing genocide in Iraq. It is a call to action, a testament to the human will to survive, and a love letter to a lost country, a fragile community, and a family torn apart by war.

AUTHOR BIO
NADIA MURAD is a human rights activist. She is a nominee for the Nobel Peace Prize, the recipient of the Václav Havel Human Rights Prize and the Sakharov Prize, and the UN’s first Goodwill Ambassador for the Dignity of Survivors of Human Trafficking. Together with Yazda, a Yazidi rights organization, she is currently working to bring ISIS before the International Criminal Court on charges of genocide and crimes against humanity.

The Mortifications
A Novel

Derek Palacio
Publicist: Sarah Grimm | 212-782-8637
sgrimm@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY
This stunning, mythic novel marks the arrival of a fresh voice and a new chapter in the history of 21st-century Cuban-American literature.

In 1980, a rural Cuban family is torn apart during the Mariel boatlift. Uxbal Encarnación—father, husband, political insurgent—refuses to leave behind the revolutionary ideals and lush tomato farms of his sun-soaked homeland. His wife, Soledad, takes young Isabel and Ulises hostage and flees with them to America, leaving behind Uxbal for the promise of a better life.

Instead of settling with fellow Cuban immigrants in Miami’s familiar heat, Soledad pushes further north into the stark, wintry landscape of Hartford, Connecticut. There, in the long shadow of their estranged patriarch, now just a distant memory, the exiled mother and her children begin a process of growth and transformation.

But just when the Encarnacions begin to settle into their strange new lives, Cuba calls them back. Uxbal is alive, and waiting.

Breathtaking, soulful, and profound, The Mortifications is an intoxicating family saga and a timely, urgent expression of longing for one’s true homeland.

SUMMARY
Soon to be a major film starring Kate Winslet and Idris Elba.

When a blizzard strands them in Salt Lake City, two strangers charter a plane together, hoping to return home; Ben Payne is a gifted surgeon returning from a conference, and Ashley Knox, a magazine writer, is en route to her wedding. But when tragedy strikes, the pair find themselves stranded in Utah’s most remote wilderness in the dead of winter, badly injured. Without food or shelter, Ashley and Ben’s chances for survival look bleak, but their reliance on each other sparks an immediate connection, which soon evolves into something more. Days in the mountains become weeks, as their hope for rescue dwindles. How will they make it out of the wilderness and, if they do, how will this experience change them forever? A heart-wrenching read, The Mountain Between Us will reaffirm your belief in the power of love to sustain us.

The History of the SAS, Britain’s Secret Special Forces Unit That Sabotaged the Nazis and Changed the Nature of War

Ben Macintyre
Publicist: Sarah Grimm | 212-782-8637
sgrimm@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY
The incredible untold story of WWII’s greatest secret fighting force, as told by the modern master of wartime intrigue.

Rogue Heroes, the latest from the author of Operation Mincemeat and A Spy Among Friends, reveals the incredible story of Britain’s Secret Air Service (SAS). Facing long odds against the Axis forces along the African coast, Britain turned to the brainchild of one of its most unlikely heroes: David Stirling, a man whose aimlessness belied a remarkable strategic mind. With the help of his colleague Jock Lewes, Stirling assembled a crack team of daring, dangerous men who would parachute in behind enemy lines to sabotage the Nazi war machine.

In its blunt dismissal of the old rules of battle, the SAS would change not only the course of the war, but the very nature of military combat. Writing with unprecedented SAS archival access, Macintyre offers a remarkable psychological portrait of elite soldiers of whom everything was asked.

The Chilbury Ladies’ Choir
A Novel
Jennifer Ryan

SUMMARY
A national bestseller for readers of Lilac Girls, The Chilbury Ladies’ Choir unfolds the triumphs of a home-front village choir.

As England becomes enmeshed in the early days of World War II and the men are away fighting, the women of Chilbury village forge an uncommon bond. They defy the Vicar’s edict to close the choir and instead “carry on singing,” resurrecting themselves as the Chilbury Ladies’ Choir. We come to know the wartime struggles of five unforgettable members: a timid widow devastated when her only son goes to fight; the daughter of a local scion drawn to a mysterious artist and her younger sister pining over an impossible crush; a Jewish refugee from Czechoslovakia hiding a family secret; and a conniving midwife plotting to outrun her seedy past.

An enchanting ensemble story that shuttles from village intrigue to romance to matters of life and death, Jennifer Ryan’s debut thrillingly illuminates the true strength of the women on the home front in a village of indomitable spirit.

chjohnston@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY

From the bestselling author of The Lace Reader, Brunonia Barry’s spellbinding new suspense novel set in Salem.

When a teenage boy dies suspiciously on Halloween night, Salem’s chief of police, John Rafferty, now married to gifted lace reader Towner Whitney, wonders if there is a connection between his death and Salem’s most notorious cold case, a triple homicide dubbed “The Goddess Murders,” in which three young women, all descended from accused Salem witches, were slashed on Halloween night in 1989. He finds unexpected help in Callie Cahill, the daughter of one of the victims. Neither believes that the main suspect, Rose Whelan, respected local historian, is guilty of murder or witchcraft. But exonerating Rose might mean crossing paths with a dangerous force. Were the women victims of an all-too-human vengeance, or was the devil raised in Salem that night? And if they cannot discover what truly happened, will evil rise again?

SUMMARY

Vowing to discover the fate of her missing cousin, a woman returns to her dark-hearted family’s Kansas estate.

After her mother’s suicide, 15-year-old Lane Roanoke came to live with her grandparents and fireball cousin, Allegra, on their vast estate in rural Kansas. Lane knew little of her mother’s family, but quickly embraced life as one of the rich and beautiful Roanoke girls. But when she discovered the dark truth at the heart of the family, she ran . . . fast, and far away.

Eleven years later, Lane is adrift in Los Angeles when her grandmother calls to tell her Allegra has gone missing. Did she run too? Or something worse? Lane returns to help search, and to ease her guilt at having left Allegra behind. As the story weaves between Lane’s first Roanoke summer and her return, The Roanoke Girls shocks and tantalizes, exploring the secrets families keep and the fierce, terrible love that both binds them together and rips them apart.

SUMMARY
A debut crime thriller about an unforgettable woman who is a combination of the genius of Lisbeth Salander with the ambition of Walter White.

The Crenshaw Six are a small but up-and-coming gang in South Central L.A. who have recently been drawn into a war between rival drug cartels. To outsiders, the Crenshaw Six appear to be led by a man named Garcia, but what no one has figured out is that the gang’s real leader is Garcia’s girlfriend, a brilliant young woman named Lola. Lola has mastered playing the role of submissive girlfriend, and in the man’s world she inhabits she is consistently underestimated. But in truth she is much, much smarter than any of the men around her, and as the gang is increasingly sucked into high-stakes betrayal and brutal violence, her skills and leadership become their only hope of survival. Lola marks the debut of a hugely exciting new thriller writer, and of a singular, magnificent character unlike anyone else in fiction.

PRAISE FOR LOLA
“Stunning . . . This powerful read is at once an intelligently crafted mystery, a reflection on the cycles of violence and addiction, and a timely mediation on the double standard facing women in authority. Love’s writing is artful and evocative, her story’s sense of place and culture are strong, and in Lola, love has created a fully fleshed-out and uniquely compelling antihero who commands fear, respect, and adoration in equal measure.”
—PUBLISHERS WEEKLY (starred review)

“Love fleshes out Lola’s character to perfection. . . . A gritty, fast-paced thriller rife with gangland intrigue layered over a moving story of absolution.”
—BOOKLIST

“A glorious invention, the Latina daughter of Lisbeth Salander and Walter White, on a lifelong tear of cycles of violence and addiction, and a timely mediation on the double standard facing women in authority. Love’s writing is artful and evocative, her story’s sense of place and culture are strong, and in Lola, love has created a fully fleshed-out and uniquely compelling antihero who commands fear, respect, and adoration in equal measure.”

SUMMARY
For fans of Donna Tartt and Megan Abbott, a thriller from the New York Times bestselling author of She’s Not There.

In 1980, six college students sneak into Philadelphia’s Eastern State Penitentiary, looking for a thrill. But they soon realize they are locked in, and the terrifying night ends in tragedy. Decades later, new evidence is found, and one of them is charged—celebrity chef Jon Casey—with murder. Only Casey’s old friend Judith can testify to his innocence.

But Judith is protecting long-held secrets of her own. If she chooses to help Casey, she risks losing the life she has fought to build and the woman she has struggled to become. In any life that contains a “before” and an “after,” how is it possible to live one life, not two?

Weaving deftly between 1980 and the present day, and told in an unforgettable voice, Long Black Veil is an intensely atmospheric thriller that explores the meaning of identity, loyalty, and love.

SUMMARY

From the YouTube superstars of Good Mythical Morning comes the ultimate guide to living a “Mythical” life, featuring stories, photos, and illustrated tips for laughing more, learning more, and never taking yourself too seriously.

"Internetainers" Rhett & Link met in first grade when their teacher made them miss recess for writing profanity on their desks, and they have been best friends ever since. Today, their daily YouTube talk show, Good Mythical Morning, has 12 million subscribers tuning in to see the guys broadcast wild experiments, hilarious banter, and the occasional cereal bath. Now the award-winning comedians are finally bringing their “Mythical” world to the printed page.

A hilarious blend of autobiography, trivia, and advice, Rhett & Link’s Book of Mythicality: A Field Guide to Curiosity, Creativity, and Tomfoolery will offer 20 ways to add “Mythicality” to your life, including:

- Eat Something That Scares You
- Unleash a Signature Dance Move
- Invent Something Ridiculous

Along the way, you’ll learn new things, laugh more often, and earn a few grown-up merit badges in the process. Heartfelt and completely original, this book is perfect for anyone looking for a fresh dose of humor and fun.

AUTHOR BIO

RHETT & LINK are an L.A.-based comedic duo known for hosting the most-watched daily talk show on the Internet, Good Mythical Morning, and starring in the YouTube Red narrative series, Buddy System. SUMMARY

The official companion to the critically acclaimed Netflix original series about the reign of Queen Elizabeth II, The Crown by Robert Lacey features additional historical background and exclusive images.

Starring Claire Foy as Queen Elizabeth II, The Crown paints a unique and intimate portrait of Britain’s longest-reigning monarch. And in this official companion to the show’s first season, bestselling biographer Robert Lacey, who also serves as the show’s historical consultant, presents an in-depth exploration of Elizabeth II’s early reign, complete with extensive research, additional material, and exclusive, beautifully reproduced images.

One of the show’s most powerful themes is that royals do not choose their duty; it is thrust upon them. Princess Elizabeth never expected her father to die so suddenly, leaving her not only a throne to fill but a global institution to govern. Crowned at twenty-five, already a wife and mother, Elizabeth II drew on every ounce of strength and British reserve to deal with crises not only on the Continent but at home as well. Now, in this official companion, follow her journey as a young woman learning to become a queen while facing challenges within her own family—and relive the majesty of the hit show’s first season.

AUTHOR BIO

ROBERT LACEY is the internationally bestselling author of Majesty and historical consultant on The Crown. For 40 years, Robert has been writing about Queen Elizabeth II’s extraordinary life. He lectures globally and has appeared on Good Morning America and Larry King Live.

Why We Don’t Suck
And How All of Us Need to Stop Being Such Partisan Little Bitches

Dr. Denis Leary
Publicist: Ellen Folan | 212-782-8944 | efolan@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY
From the author of the bestselling Why We Suck comes a searing comic look at these divisive times, skewering liberals and conservatives alike with a signature dose of sarcasm and common sense.

Denis Leary refutes the current highly partisan Right-Wing Nutjob versus Left-Wing Snowflake approach to American politics—where you’re either one or the other, with no gray areas in between. Leading a new protest movement called “Gray Lives Matter,” he takes equal-opportunity aim at the screaming heads we see arguing every night on CNN (the Clinton News Network) and Fox’s Fair and Balanced Republican Report. With a devoted mission to Make America Laugh Again, Denis tackles the topics we all hold close to our American hearts: Twitter, Instagram, and the seemingly endless search for fame and diet vodka. In a country so gluten-free you can kill people with a doughnut, it’s time for someone to stand up and stop the insanity. Or at least defend the double cheeseburger. With a side order of free porn. Denis is that guy. That’s why his 2020 campaign for president will start with bumper stickers that say shut the fuck up and pass me the fries. We’re all in this together, and Denis Leary is here to remind us what makes the USA #1 on the list of The World’s Most Powerful Countries. And #18 in The Best Quality of Life contest. Plus #14 in Education. Buy the book and laugh your ass off. It’s an easy way to lose weight.

AUTHOR BIO
DR. DENIS LEARY is a five-time loser at the Emmy Awards. He has lost in both the drama and comedy categories, not to mention writing. His first literary foray Why We Suck was a New York Times bestseller, but not nominated for the National Book Award. In his long and storied entertainment career, he has also never won the Stanley Cup, the Nobel Peace Prize, or an argument with his wife.

If this election proves anything, it’s that even I could be President one day. Look at his track record: angry tweets, canceled TV show, thin skin, and an attractive wife. According to that formula, I’m one bad comb-over away from living in the White House.

—DR. DENIS LEARY
SUMMARY

From actress/producer/writer Krysten Ritter, a gripping, tightly wound psychological suspense novel about a woman forced to confront her past in the wake of small-town corruption.

It’s been 10 years since Abby Williams left home. An environmental lawyer in Chicago, she now has a thriving career, a modern apartment, and her pick of one-night stands. But when a case takes her back to Barrens, Indiana, the life Abby painstakingly created begins to crack. Tasked with investigating Optimal Plastics, the town’s economic heart, Abby finds strange connections to Barrens’s biggest scandal from her youth, which involved the popular Kaycee Mitchell and her closest friends—just before Kaycee disappeared.

Abby knows the key to solving any case lies in the weak spots, the unanswered questions. But she soon unearths an even more disturbing secret—a “game” that will threaten the reputations, and lives, of the community and risk exposing a darkness that may consume her.

With tantalizing twists, slow-burning suspense, and a remote, rural town of just five claustrophobic miles, Bonfire explores whether you can ever really outrun your past.

AUTHOR BIO

KRYSTEN RITTER is known for her starring roles in Marvel’s Jessica Jones, Don’t Trust the B— in Apartment 23, and Breaking Bad. Ritter’s work on film includes Big Eyes, Listen Up Philip, Life Happens, Confessions of a Shopaholic, and She’s Out of My League. She is the founder of Silent Machine, a production company which aims to highlight complex female protagonists.

The Book of Joe
The Life, Wit, and (Sometimes Accidental) Wisdom of Joe Biden

Jeff Wilser
Publicist: Kathryn Santora | 212-572-2544
ksantora@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY
The ultimate guide to America’s favorite vice president, filled with all of the lessons and none of the malarkey.

The aviators. The Amtrak train. The ice cream cones. The “point.” Few politicians are as iconic, or as beloved, as Joe Biden. Now, in The Book of Joe, Biden fans will finally have a complete look at America’s favorite VP—and what he can teach us.

Structured around key moments in his life and career, this blend of biography, advice, and humor will reveal the experiences that forged Joe Biden, and the lessons we can use in our own lives. Along the way, readers will encounter memorable Biden-isms and fun sidebars on Biden’s most endearing gaffes, his bromance with President Obama, and much more. But this book will also have an inspirational thread. Much as Biden has come back from both professional missteps and personal heartbreaks, we all have to get back up and fight sometimes. This entertaining and practical book will be both a celebration of a great political figure and an essential guide to creating the America he believes in so dearly.

AUTHOR BIO
JEFF WILSER is the author of five books, including Alexander Hamilton’s Guide to Life and The Good News About What’s Bad for You . . . and The Bad News About What’s Good for You, named by Amazon as one of the Best Books of the Month in both Non-Fiction and Humor. His work has appeared in print or online at GO, Esquire, New York magazine, Glamour, Cosmo, mental_floss, MTV, and The Huffington Post. His advice has been syndicated to a network of 200 newspapers including the Miami Herald and the Chicago Tribune. His TV appearances have ranged from BBC News to The View.

In this groundbreaking analysis of personality type, bestselling author Gretchen Rubin reveals the one simple question that will transform what you do at home, at work, and in life.

Rubin realized that by asking the seemingly dry question “How do I respond to expectations?” we gain explosive self-knowledge. People, she discovered, fit into four “tendencies”: Upholders, Questioners, Obligers, and Rebels. Our tendency shapes every aspect of our behavior, so using this framework allows us to make better decisions, meet deadlines, suffer less stress, and engage more effectively.

More than 600,000 people have taken her online quiz, and managers, doctors, teachers, spouses, and parents already use the framework to help people live better, healthier, and happier lives. With sharp insight, compelling research, and hilarious examples, The Four Tendencies will help you get happier, healthier, more productive, and more creative. It’s far easier to succeed when you know what works for you.

Dining In
Highly Cookable Recipes

Alison Roman

Publicist: Erica Gelbard | 212-572-6182 | egelbard@penguinrandomhouse.com
Publicist: Jana Branson | 212-572-2210 | jbranson@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY

Innovative, unfussy recipes that will make you want to stay home and cook.

Alison Roman is known as much for her keeper recipes as her wry Instagram voice and effortless style. Her debut cookbook features 125 recipes for simple, of-the-moment dishes that are full of quickie techniques (think slathering roast chicken in anchovy butter, roasting citrus to bring out new flavors, and keeping boiled potatoes in your fridge for instant crispy smashed potatoes).

Roman’s recipes set today’s trends and will show up as tomorrow’s classics: vegetable-forward with quality ingredients, punctuated by standout flavors like hot honey–browned butter, preserved lemon, za’atar, and garlicky walnuts. Her ingenuity will seduce seasoned cooks, while her warm, edgy writing makes these recipes practical enough for the novice.

Cooking through Dining in will be like having Alison right there with you in the kitchen: brash, funny, and full of opinions.

AUTHOR BIO

ALISON ROMAN is a contributor at Bon Appétit and was formerly the senior food editor at Bon Appétit and BuzzFeed. Her work appears regularly in the New York Times and has been featured in GQ, Cherry Bombe, and Lucky Peach. She has been a judge on the Food Network shows Chopped Junior, Worst Baker in America, and Throwdown! with Bobby Flay and worked professionally in kitchens such as New York’s Momofuku Milk Bar and San Francisco’s Quince. A native of Los Angeles, she lives in Brooklyn.
SUMMARY

Melissa Clark brings her flavor-forward dishes to everyone’s favorite countertop appliance, the Instant Pot®.

With 75 recipes for slow cooker, pressure cooker, and other Instant Pot® settings, Dinner in an Instant proves that home cooks do not have to sacrifice flavor and quality for the convenience of countertop-appliance cooking. With Melissa’s signature arsenal of flavors (garlic, ginger, preserved lemons, gochujang, harissa, and more!) and chock-full of tips, each of the recipes will be annotated with dietary information and notes on which setting is best for each dish.

Recipes will also include instructions for cooking on multiple settings—busy home cooks can decide whether they want to have their dinner cook throughout the day while they tend to other tasks, or in a quick 20 minutes before the family sits down to eat. As in her previous book, Dinner, all of Melissa’s recipes are never-before-published, fresh, approachable, and practical for weeknight cooking, without ever sacrificing quality and taste.

AUTHOR BIO

MELISSA CLARK is a staff writer for the New York Times Dining section, where she writes their wildly popular food column “A Good Appetite,” and stars in a biweekly complementary video series. She is the winner of James Beard and IACP awards, and her work has also been selected for the Best American Food Writing. A regular on Today and NPR (Splendid Table, Leonard Lopate), Melissa earned an MFA in writing from Columbia.
SUMMARY

Cook, eat, and be fit with 200 recipes from Bobby Flay, whose approach to healthy eating is all about flavor—not about eliminating anything from your diet.

With a profession that has him constantly developing and tasting new recipes, chef Bobby Flay does not eschew any foods: bread, bacon, and butter are still all on the table. His secret to staying healthy is to have on hand an arsenal of low-calorie flavor bombs—rubs, relishes, and marinades—to transform lean proteins, whole grains, and fresh produce into crave-worthy meals at home. In Bobby Flay Fit, Bobby shares smoothies and juices, breakfast bowls, snacks to fuel workouts, hearty salads, nourishing soups, satisfying dinners, and lightened-up desserts. With fitness tips and a look into the chef’s daily healthy routines, this cookbook is for those who want to eat right without overhauling their pantries or sacrificing taste.

Coming to My Senses
The Making of a Counterculture Cook

Alice Waters

SUMMARY
The long-awaited memoir from cultural icon and culinary standard-bearer Alice Waters.

When Alice Waters opened the doors of Chez Panisse at the age of 27, no one ever anticipated the indelible mark it would leave on the culinary landscape—Alice, least of all. Fueled in equal parts by naiveté and a relentless pursuit of beauty and pure flavor, she turned a passion project into an iconic institution that redefined American cuisine. Coming to My Senses recalls the tumultuous times and charismatic circle of friends that emboldened her to find her own voice as a cook when the prevailing food culture was embracing convenience and uniformity. Dotted with stories, recipes, photographs, and letters, Coming to My Senses is a quietly revealing look at one woman’s evolution from a rebellious seeker to a respected activist who effects social and political change on a global level through the common bond of food.

AUTHOR BIO
ALICE WATERS is the executive chef, founder, and owner of Chez Panisse Restaurant and Café in Berkeley, California. She founded the Edible Schoolyard and has received the French Legion of Honor, WSJ Magazine Humanitarian Innovator Award, and three James Beard Awards. Alice is vice president of Slow Food International and the author of 13 books. Her most recent books are My Pantry, The Art of Simple Food II, 40 Years of Chez Panisse, and In the Green Kitchen. She lives in Berkeley, California.
SUMMARY

Tieghan Gerard showcases the creativity that’s become beloved on her award-winning and wildly popular blog. Tieghan Gerard grew up in Colorado as one of seven children. When her dad took too long to get dinner on the table, she started cooking—at age 15. Ever determined to rein in the chaos of her big family, Tieghan found her place in the kitchen. She had a knack for creating unique dishes, which led her to launch her blog, Half Baked Harvest. Millions have fallen in love with her fresh take on comfort food, stunning photography, and charming life in the mountains. Now, Tieghan reinvents comfort food by bringing to it brightness, texture, and fresh ingredients. Every recipe has a little something extra, whether it’s sweet potato fries in a salad, French onion soup turned Irish with Guinness, or angel hair pasta baked into a frittata. With a barn for a kitchen and goats for company, Tieghan’s life is completely lust-worthy—and delicious.

AUTHOR BIO

TIEGHAN GERARD is a food photographer, stylist, and recipe developer. Her blog, Half Baked Harvest, features a hearty mix of savory, sweet, healthy, and indulgent recipes . . . with a good amount of chocolate. SUMMARY

The all-in-one cooking bible for a new generation, with 300 recipes for everything from simple vinaigrettes and roast chicken to birthday cake and cocktails.

For Alex Guarnaschelli—whose mother edited the seminal 1997 edition of Joy of Cooking, which defined the food of the late 20th century—a life in food and cookbooks was almost predestined. Now an accomplished chef and author in her own right (and mom to a young daughter), Alex pens a cookbook for the way we eat today. For generations raised on vibrant, international flavors and supermarkets stocked with miso paste, harissa, and other bold condiments and ingredients, here are 300 recipes to replace their parents’ Chicken Marbella, including Glazed Five-Spice Ribs, Roasted Eggplant Dip with Garlic Butter Naan, Roasted Beef Brisket with Pastrami Rub, Fennel and Orange Salad with Walnut Pesto, Quinoa Allspice Oatmeal Cookies, and Dark Chocolate Rum Pie.

AUTHOR BIO

Night + Market
Delicious Thai Food to Facilitate Drinking and Fun-Having Amongst Friends

Kris Yenbamroong
Publicist: Erica Gelbard | 212-572-6182
egelbard@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY

The debut from the Food & Wine Best New Chef behind Night + Market, with 100 Thai recipes for lazy cooks.

Growing up in his family’s groundbreaking L.A. restaurant, Talesai, Kris Yenbamroong has Thai cooking in his blood. Since then, though, he’s come back around on “inauthentic” cooking, realizing that who he is as a chef is wedded to who he is as a person: a postmodern American. In his debut book, Kris shares his techniques for the elegant, royal Thai food his grandmother cooked, and the rustic, fiery Northern Thai food he fell in love with when visiting family in Thailand, as well as taking all those flavor lessons and techniques and transforming them into favorites like Thai fried chicken sandwiches and pastrami drunken noodles. Along the way, we see what it means to be an Asian American chef today.

AUTHOR BIO

KRIS YENBAMROONG has been featured in every major food publication, from Bon Appétit to Food & Wine to the New York Times, and was a James Beard Award semifinalist. He also has ties to the fashion and art worlds: he worked for photographer Richard Kern; he has appeared in ads for J.Crew and in magazines like Details and Esquire and Vice. Night + Market is among the most talked about, lauded, and nationally recognized restaurants in Los Angeles.

Cherry Bombe
The Cookbook

Kerry Diamond and Claudia Wu
Publicist: Kate Tyler | 212-572-2551
ktyler@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY

A beautifully photographed collection of 100 recipes and cooking tips from the most exiting women in food today.

In this stunning cookbook, the founders of the hit indie magazine Cherry Bombe—which counts celebrities and food icons like Chrissy Teigen, Lena Dunham, Christina Tosi, and others as cover girls—have collected delicious recipes from 100 of the coolest women who cook, grow, style, and serve food. These keepers are the equivalent of a dress borrowed from a girlfriend or a dog-eared book your sister lent you: dependable, interesting, and hip. All of the recipes are personal, and in cooking them, you’ll realize there’s girl power swirling all around you.

AUTHOR BIO

The Chef and
the Slow Cooker
Hugh Acheson
Publicist: Erica Gelbard | 212-572-6182
egelbard@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY
Hugh Acheson brings a chef’s mind to the slow cooker. It’s not just about convenience, it’s about fresh ideas.

Hugh celebrates America’s old countertop stalwart with fresh, convenient slow cooker recipes with a chef’s twist: dishes like pork shoulder braised in milk with fennel and raisins, miso-braised salmon, or meltingly tender pork belly with sauerkraut. But where it gets really fun is when Hugh shows what a slow cooker can really do, things like poaching eggs in sauce for your brunch party, or making easy duck confit, or steam-roasting a whole chicken with vinegar, carrots, and pine nuts. There’s even a section of jams, preserves, and one and a half desserts, so your slow cooker can be your BFF in the kitchen morning, noon, and night.

AUTHOR BIO
HUGH ACHESON is the chef/partner of the restaurants Five & Ten, The National, and Empire State South, named restaurant of the year by Atlanta Magazine. He is winner of two 2011 James Beard Awards for Best Chef Southeast and Best American Cookbook, has been featured in numerous food and wine publications, and appears on Bravo’s Top Chef as a judge. Hugh is the author of The Broad Fork, A New Turn in the South, and Pick a Pickle. He lives in Athens, Georgia, with his wife and two children.

Kristen Kish Cooking
Recipes and Techniques
Kristen Kish with Meredith Erickson
Publicist: Natasha Martin | 212-782-8370
namartin@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY
From one of the most exciting young chefs in America today, a cookbook with more than 80 recipes that celebrate impeccable technique and bridge her Korean heritage, Michigan upbringing, Boston cooking years, and more.

Kish won legions of fans, first by helming two of Barbara Lynch’s esteemed Boston restaurants, and then by battling her way back from elimination to win season ten of Top Chef. Her path from Korean orphan to American adoptee, sometime model to distinguished chef, shines a light on her determination and love of food. Her recipes are surprising yet refined, taking the expected—a ingredient or a technique, for example—and using it in a new way to make dishes that are unique and irresistible. She sears avocado and pairs it with brined shrimp flavored with coriander and ginger. A broth laced with pancetta and Parmesan is boosted with roasted mushrooms and farro for an earthy, soulful dish. Caramelized honey, which is sweet, smoky, and slightly bitter, is spiked with chiles and lemon and served with fried chicken thighs. The results are delicious, inspiring, and definitely worth trying at home.

AUTHOR BIO
KRISTEN KISH was born in Seoul, South Korea, and adopted by a family in Kentwood, Michigan, at the age of four months. After attending Le Cordon Bleu culinary school in Chicago, she worked for Barbara Lynch in Boston, first at Stir and then at Menton. Kish won season ten of Bravo’s Top Chef in 2012, after originally being eliminated and then cooking her way back into the competition through the show’s Last Chance Kitchen online series. She was most recently the cohost of Travel Channel’s 36 Hours.

SUMMARY

From the bestselling author of The PDT Cocktail Book comes the first definitive guide to teach readers—be they professional bartenders or amateur cocktail enthusiasts—the ins and outs of the modern bar industry.

Acclaimed mixologist Jim Meehan’s magnum opus, Meehan’s Bartender Manual, chronicles Meehan’s storied career in the bar business through practical, enlightening chapters that mix history with professional insight. Topics include the history of cocktails and bartending, service, hospitality, menu development, bar design, spirits production, drink mixing technique, and the tools you’ll need to create a well-stocked bar, all brought to life in more than 150 black-and-white illustrations by artist Gianmarco Magnani. The book also includes recipes for 100 cocktail classics—including Meehan originals and contributions from more than 50 of his colleagues around the world—each photographed by fine art photographer Doron Gild.

This dense yet approachable compendium is presented in an iconic package—featuring a textured cover with debossed type and rounded corners—making it an instant classic. Whether you’re a professional looking to take your career to the next level or an enthusiastic amateur interested in better understanding concepts like mise en place and the mechanics of drink making, Meehan’s Bartender Manual is the definitive modern guide.

AUTHOR BIO

JIM MEEHAN is a renowned bartender and author of The PDT Cocktail Book. He worked at some of New York City’s most revered restaurants and bars, including Gramercy Tavern and Pegu Club, before opening the James Beard Award–winning PDT bar in 2007. A former editor of Food & Wine’s annual cocktail book and Mr. Boston Official Bartender’s Guide, he and his family reside in Portland, Oregon, where he runs his consulting firm, Mixography, Inc.
The debut cookbook from one of the country’s most celebrated and pioneering restaurants, Michelin-starred State Bird Provisions in San Francisco, with recipes for its most popular dishes.

Few restaurants have taken the nation by storm in the way that State Bird Provisions has. Both the restaurant and its chefs have received every major award in the food world, including James Beard Best New Restaurant (2013), Bon Appétit Best New Restaurant (2013), Food & Wine Best New Restaurant (2015), and one star from the Michelin Guide. Inspired by their years catering parties, chefs Stuart Brioza and Nicole Krasinski use dim sum–style carts to offer guests small but finely crafted dishes ranging from their famous savory pancakes and their signature fried quail with stewed onions. Their singular and original approach to cooking, with its blend of flavors and textures, has influenced other restaurants throughout the country and is beloved by diners, chefs, and critics alike.

STUART BRIOZA and NICOLE KRASINSKI are the chef/owners of State Bird Provisions and The Progress in San Francisco. JJ GOODE is a Brooklyn-based food writer and the coauthor of the books A Girl and Her Pig with April Bloomfield, Morimoto with Masaharu Morimoto, Truly Mexican with Roberto Santibañez, and Pok Pok with Andy Ricker.

MUNCHIES
Late-Night Meals from the World’s Best Chefs

JJ Goode, Helen Hollyman, and the Editors of MUNCHIES

SUMMARY
This cookbook, based on the game-changing Web series Chef’s Night Out, features stories of the world’s best chefs’ debauched nights on the town, and recipes for the food they cook to soak up the booze afterwards.

MUNCHIES brings the hugely popular show Chef’s Night Out (on Vice Media’s food website, MUNCHIES) to the page with snapshots of food culture in cities around the world, plus tall tales and fuzzy recollections from 65 of the world’s top chefs, including Anthony Bourdain, Dominique Crenn, David Chang, Danny Bowien, Wylie Dufresne, Inaki Aizpitarte, and Enrique Olvera, among others. Then there are the recipes: dishes these chefs cook when they’re done feeding customers, and ready to feed their friends instead. With chapters like “Drinks” (i.e., how to get your night started), “Things with Tortillas,” “Hardcore” (which includes pizzas, nachos, poutines, and more), and “Morning After” (classy and trashy dishes for the bleary-eyed next day), MUNCHIES features more than 65 recipes to satisfy any late-night craving and plenty of drinks to keep the party going.

AUTHOR BIO
JJ GOODE is an award-winning cookbook author who has coauthored books by April Bloomfield, Andy Ricker, Dale Talde, and Masaharu Morimoto. HELEN HOLLYMAN is the editor in chief of MUNCHIES, the world’s first global, millennial food website and digital media video channel from Vice Media.

By the Smoke and the Smell
My Search for the Rare and Sublime on the Spirits Trail

Thaddeus Vogler
Publicist: David Hawk | 510-285-2951
david.hawk@tenspeed.com

SUMMARY
A memoir-cum-manifesto from the country’s foremost expert on sustainable, responsibly sourced, and grower-produced spirits.

Thaddeus Vogler is one of the most important people in the beverage industry today: a man on a mission to bring “grower spirits”—spirits with provenance, made in the traditional way by individuals rather than by mass conglomerates—to the public eye. By the Smoke and the Smell is Vogler’s remarkable debut. This book will completely change the way Americans think about and buy spirits. Alternately humorous and heartfelt, Vogler’s memoir will inspire readers not only to look at their liquor bottle’s labels more closely, but also to seek out wonderful and wonderfully made products.

AUTHOR BIO
THADDEUS VOGLER is the owner of Trou Normand and the James Beard Award–winning Bar Agricole in San Francisco. For nearly two decades, he worked to design, open, and manage the bars at more than 20 top Bay Area venues. In 2011, Vogler was named one of Forbes magazine’s Most Interesting People. A global authority on craft spirits, he is consulted regularly by national and global press including the New York Times, Der Spiegel, the Washington Post, Sunset, Bon Appétit, and the Wall Street Journal. He has worked with numerous world-famous restaurateurs including Alice Waters, Charles Phan, and Francis Ford Coppola.

Daniel Humm and his business partner, Will Guidara, have made an indelible mark on the global dining scene with their award-winning restaurants The NoMad and Eleven Madison Park, which recently claimed the number one slot on the World’s 50 Best Restaurants list. In their latest impressive contribution to high-end cookbooks, Humm and Guidara reflect on the last eleven years at Eleven Madison Park, the period in which this singular team garnered scores of accolades, including four stars from the New York Times, three Michelin stars, seven James Beard Foundation awards, and for Chef Humm, the 2015 chefs’ choice award from a worldwide jury of his peers.

AUTHOR BIO
DANIEL HUMM and WILL GUIDARA are the proprietors of the three-Michelin-starred Eleven Madison Park and the counter-service Made Nice restaurant in Manhattan, as well as The NoMad restaurant with locations in Manhattan and Los Angeles.

The Truth Matters
A Citizen’s Guide to Separating Facts from Lies and Stopping Fake News in Its Tracks

Bruce Bartlett
Publicist: Daniel Wikey | 510-285-2937
daniel.wikey@tenspeed.com

SUMMARY
A lucid, practical, and concise guide for citizens who want to cut through the lies in this era of “fake news” and “alternative facts.”

As recent national events have proven, the floodgates have opened and the political terrain is shifting rapidly with the dangerous concept of “alternative facts” supplanting actual facts at the highest levels of our government and in new media sources that are intentionally designed to spread obfuscation and lies. This brief, accessible citizen’s guide helps you fight this deeply troubling trend and ensure that truth is not a permanent casualty. Written by Capitol Hill veteran and longtime journalist Bruce Bartlett, The Truth Matters is the first accessible layperson’s guide that tells news consumers where to go, who they can rely upon, and how to evaluate sources for accuracy and reliability. With actionable tips, tricks, recommendations, and shortcuts for both casual news consumers and journalists, this needed guide teaches readers how to drive through a media environment littered with potholes and other dangers.

AUTHOR BIO
BRUCE BARTLETT’s experience ranges from serving as Staff Director of the Joint Economic Committee of Congress, to holding the position of Deputy Assistant Secretary for Economic Policy in the Bush 41 White House and writing a column for Forbes and the Economix blog of the New York Times. He’s had over 2,100 articles published in major national publications and two of his last three books, Impostor and The Benefit and the Burden, landed him on The Daily Show with Jon Stewart and the New York Times bestseller list.
Pok Pok: The Drinking Food of Thailand
A Cookbook
Andy Ricker with JJ Goode
Publicist: Kristin Casemore | 510-285-2944
kristin.casemore@tenspeed.com

SUMMARY
A cookbook showcasing the rich and varied drinking food of Thailand, and the drinks consumed with, featuring 50 recipes.

A celebration of the thrill and spirit of Thai drinking food, Andy Ricker’s follow-up to Pok Pok brings the same level of authority, with a more laid-back approach. Just as America has salted peanuts, wings, and nachos, Thailand has its own roster of craveable snacks: spicy, salty, and/or sour, they are perfect accompaniments for a few drinks and the company of good friends. Accessible and detailed recipes like phat khii mao (drunkard’s stir-fry), kai thawt (Thai-style fried chicken), and thua thawt samun phrai (fried peanuts with kaffir lime, garlic, and chiles) provide all the tools to create the food and the experience of Whiskey Soda Lounge at home.

AUTHOR BIO
ANDY RICKER worked in restaurants all over the world before opening his first restaurant, Pok Pok, in Portland. He has since gone on to open Whiskey Soda Lounge, Pok Pok Noi, and Sen Yai in Portland, and Pok Pok NY in New York City.

SUMMARY
The author of New York Times bestseller The $100 Startup shows how to launch a profitable side hustle in just 27 days.

To some people, the thought of quitting their day job to strike out on their own is exhilarating. To many others, it’s terrifying. But what if there was a way to quickly and easily create an additional stream of income on top of what you make from your full-time job?

The side hustle is the answer for those wanting to make extra money and enjoy the freedom of entrepreneurship without giving up a steady paycheck or shouldering the risks of operating a full-time business. Here Guillebeau offers a step-by-step guide that will allow you to brainstorm, select, launch, refine—and most important, make money from—your side hustle in under a month.

You don’t need entrepreneurial experience to launch a profitable side hustle. You don’t need employees, or investors. With Guillebeau as a guide, anyone can learn to build a fast track to freedom.

The Startup Way
Making Entrepreneurship a Fundamental Discipline of Every Enterprise

Eric Ries
Publicist: Megan Perritt | 212-572-2543 | mperritt@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY
Bestselling author, entrepreneur, and Lean Startup founder Eric Ries, author of The Lean Startup, reveals how established corporations as well as startups can use entrepreneurial principles to grow revenues, drive innovation, scale and reinvent themselves as truly modern organizations.

In The Lean Startup, Eric Ries showed how ideas from the startup world such as constant iteration, minimal viable products (or MVPs), and build measure learn principles can help to determine when a startup should persevere with their strategy, or pivot. He now turns his attention to established companies and organizations. For the past four years, Ries has been working closely with companies like GE, Toyota, and Pitney Bowes to help them become more nimble and better able to innovate and bring products to market more quickly in order to spur growth and produce products and services that customers actually want. In The Startup Way, Ries shares his insights, lessons, and best practices from his collaborations with some of the world’s most innovative and successful companies, as they attempt to change their culture and processes to be faster and smarter at what they do. The Startup Way is an absolutely critical guide and tool kit for every company that recognizes it needs to be more ready and better able to respond to today’s constantly changing marketplace.

AUTHOR BIO
ERIC RIES is the author of the New York Times bestseller The Lean Startup, which has been translated into nearly 30 languages. An entrepreneur himself, he is the creator of the Lean Startup methodology, which has become a global movement in business. He has advised companies on business and product strategy as diverse as garage startups to global enterprises, including GE, where he helped to create GE’s companywide FastWorks program. Eric is the founder and CEO of the Long-Term Stock Exchange.

How Mature Companies Find New Life with Startups

Jim Stengel with Tom Post

SUMMARY

By partnering with startup companies, established companies can relearn the need for speed, increase strategic risk-taking, spark innovation, improve their relationships with customers, and streamline their operations.

Former global marketing officer for Procter and Gamble and business consultant Jim Stengel saw firsthand the importance of establishing partnerships and learning key insights from the startup world. In an eye-opening book, he looks at such established companies as GE and Western Union, Wells Fargo and IBM, Target and Motorola Solutions, Toyota and Bayer to see what they are learning from their alliances with entrepreneurs and startups—as well as the potential pitfalls and course corrections when a partnership goes awry. Jim closes by looking at how 10-, 20-, and 30-year-old “startups” like Microsoft, Google, and Apple are reinventing themselves—and what that bodes for legacy companies everywhere.

AUTHOR BIO

JIM STENGEL was the global marketing chief for Procter and Gamble, where he worked for more than 25 years. In 2008, he left to form Stengel Consulting, working with companies to build brands and grow their business. He is the author of the acclaimed business book Grow.

How Wall Street Destroyed Main Street

Rana Foroohar

SUMMARY

How the influence of Wall Street on American business has created a system rigged to enrich the elites at the expense of average Americans.

A key reason that so many Americans deeply distrust the political establishment is one that politicians on both sides rarely address: the fact that Wall Street is no longer creating the jobs to support the middle and working class. Drawing on deep reporting and interviews at the highest rungs of business and government, Foroohar shows how the “financialization of America”—the trend by which finance and its way of thinking have come to dominate all of American business—is solidifying Wall Street’s reign over Main Street, widening the gap between rich and poor and threatening the future of the American Dream. Through stories of both “takers” (financiers stifling job creation while lining their own pockets) and “makers” (businesses serving the real economy), Foroohar lights the way to a better path forward.

AUTHOR BIO

Taking Aim
Daring to Be Different, Happier, and Healthier in the Great Outdoors

Eva Shockey with A.J. Gregory
Publicist: Megan Schumann | 212-782-9760 | mschumann@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY
A celebrity hunter, outdoorswoman, and social media star invites readers on a spirit wilderness adventure of skill, daring, and healthy living.

For the new wave of women and girls in outdoor sports, Eva Shockey is a real-life Katniss Everdeen—a reality star on the Outdoor Channel who defies the stereotype that hunting is a man’s game. She grew up expecting to be a dancer and model—just like her glamorous mother. But something about spending vacations RV’ing across America and on big-game hunts in the Yukon with her dad sparked in her an enduring passion for outdoor pursuits.

In Taking Aim, Eva tells a very personal story of choosing the less-traveled path to a rewarding life. For her, that has meant staying rooted in wildness, hunting as a way of “harvesting” food, caring deeply about sustainability and healthy eating, and getting closer to God in the cathedrals of nature.

Her story will empower women and girls to reject gender-based stereotypes and expectations and set out in pursuit of their own unique dreams.

AUTHOR BIO
EVA SHOCKEY is cohost with her father of Jim Shockey’s Hunting Adventures on the Outdoor Channel. A sought-after spokesperson on hunting and the outdoors, she is a corporate ambassador for Cabela’s, Bowtech, Crosman, Daniel Defense, Muzzy Broadheads, and other major brands, and has an exclusive line of Under Armour gear. When she’s not traveling for the work she loves, she divides her time between North Carolina and Vancouver Island.

Biography & Autobiography—Adventurers & Explorers
SUMMARY

Soon to be a major motion picture starring Forest Whitaker and from the producer of Dallas Buyers Club, the harrowing true story of the modern Ku Klux Klan and a stunning act of grace in the Deep South.

In 1996, the town of Laurens, South Carolina, was thrust into the international spotlight when a white supremacist named Michael Burden opened a museum celebrating the Ku Klux Klan on the community’s main square. News vans and protestors flooded the streets as hate groups rallied to the establishment’s defense, dredging up the long history of racial violence in the formerly prosperous mill town.

But the story took a surprising turn one year later, when Burden broke away from the Klan at the urging of his wife. Newly homeless, he was taken in by Reverend David Kennedy, an African American preacher and leader in the Laurens community, as his church rallied to rescue the man who had been their biggest enemy. In this spellbinding southern epic, journalist Courtney Hargrave explores Kennedy and Burden’s friendship, the factors that drive young men to join hate groups, and the difference one person can make in confronting America’s oldest sin.

COURTNEY HARGRAVE is a journalist and a coauthor who has worked on numerous New York Times bestsellers in the entertainment space.
7 Lessons from Heaven
How Dying Taught Me to Live a Joy-Filled Life

Mary C. Neal, M.D.

Summary
In this inspired follow-up to her million-selling To Heaven and Back, Dr. Mary Neal shares untold stories about her encounters with Jesus and powerful insights about how the reality of heaven can make each day magnificent.

Dr. Mary Neal’s unforgettable account of a 1999 kayaking accident that took her life, and what happened next, has riveted more than a million readers. But something happened as she shared her story in the years since. Not only did Neal realize she had more to tell, she discovered she had yet to answer the biggest question of all: How does knowing heaven is real change our lives on Earth?

“I have never finished speaking at a venue, including corporate settings, without people wanting to know more,” says Dr. Neal. In 7 Lessons from Heaven, Neal takes readers deeper into her experience, which includes encounters with angels, a journey to a “city of light,” and what it was like to meet Jesus face-to-face. Even more, Neal shares how she was sent back with the absolute knowledge that the God we hope for—the one who knows us, loves each of us as though we are the only one, and wants us to experience joy in our daily life—is real and present. She offers practical insights and inspiration for how each of us can experience this God every day and begin living without regret, worry, anxiety, or fear.

SUMMARY
An E! News star chronicles his own spiritual journey as he investigates the spiritual lives of the rich and famous.

Ken Baker has worked in Hollywood for more than 20 years—hobnobbing with multimillionaires and interviewing movie, music, and TV stars such as George Clooney, Britney Spears, Brad Pitt, Angelina Jolie, and Kim Kardashian, day in and day out. In The Ken Commandments, he sets off on an experiment that will bring him closer to the spiritual lives of such diverse luminaries as Tom Cruise, Selena Gomez, Justin Bieber, Joel Osteen, and Gwen Stefani and in the process help to reveal the light and dark of Hollywood in new ways. From New Age spirituality, to Bible-based Christianity, to Scientology, to meditation classes, to Atheism studies, Baker immerses himself in a range of spiritual practices side by side with the celebrity set, revealing a world that is deeper, more questioning, and more God-centered than you’d ever imagine.

AUTHOR BIO
KEN BAKER is an award-winning author and journalist currently serving as senior correspondent for E! News and E! Online. His memoir, Man Made: A Memoir of My Body was released as a major motion picture titled The Late Bloomer. He lives in Los Angeles with his family.

SUMMARY
In this thematic sequel to his massively successful The Barbarian Way, Erwin McManus challenges his readers to take risks, act bravely, and live lives fueled by divine power and passion.

When a person comes to the end of their days they will not measure the value of their life based on wins and losses or successes and failures. All of those things will begin to blur together and move toward the periphery.

What will give someone solace or haunt them until their final breath is what they could have done but did not, who they could have been but never became, the life they could have lived that never came to life.

This book is a call and much needed push toward that “most courageous life.” By examining the account of the prophet Elisha and the King of Israel, McManus demonstrates why it is best to follow God into battle with an empty quiver. He shows the reader why leaving everything on the battlefield feels risky, but yields the deepest sense of fulfillment.

AUTHOR BIO
ERWIN RAPHAEL McMANUS is an iconoclast and a cultural pioneer known for his integration of creativity and spirituality. He is an artist, entrepreneur, and cultural thought leader who is also the founder of MOSAIC, a community of faith in Los Angeles, California. PRAISE FOR TIM TEBOW

"Tim Tebow is not an athlete—athlete is what Tim fills in on his tax return. That does not begin to tell the story of who he is. Tim is a role model, an inspiration to those who have a dream and are willing to accept life as a journey full of ups and downs.” —JON BON JOVI, singer-songwriter

“Shaken shows us a side of Tim Tebow that we’ve never gotten to see before. In this book, Tim comes alongside his reader and says, ‘I’ve been there too,’ and proceeds to show us how God is faithful even when our entire lives feel shaken to the core.” —MARK BATTERSON, pastor and New York Times bestselling author of The Circle Maker

"Tim has always inspired me with his dedication to grow and improve in all aspects of life, especially his faith. With this book, Tim encourages readers to keep moving and stay strong while battling life’s obstacles.” —CAM NEWTON, quarterback for the Carolina Panthers

AUTHOR BIO

TIM TEBOW is a two-time national champion, first-round NFL draft pick, and Heisman Trophy winner. After playing in the NFL for the Denver Broncos and the New York Jets, Tebow joined the SEC Network. In addition to his role on SEC Nation, the network’s traveling road show, Tebow also contributes to a variety of other ESPN platforms. In 2016 he signed a professional baseball contract with the New York Mets. Through everything, Tim’s true passion remains the work of the Tim Tebow Foundation, which he began in 2010.

31 Proverbs to Light Your Path

Liz Curtis Higgs

SUMMARY

This Bible-centered, flexible resource is perfect for gift giving, devotional reading, and small-group study.

With her signature ability to blend ancient truth with real-life takeaway, best-selling author and Bible teacher Liz Curtis Higgs examines thirty-one verses from the book of Proverbs, and then offers a unique “One Minute, One Step” challenge at the end of each chapter, suggesting a do-it-now task that requires one minute or less. Readers will quickly discover how practical and applicable the book of Proverbs is, and how the Lord can use even the smallest steps to lead us in the right direction.

AUTHOR BIO

LIZ CURTIS HIGGS is the author of more than 30 books with 4.6 million copies in print, including her nonfiction bestsellers It’s Good to Be Queen, Bad Girls of the Bible, The Girl’s Still Got It, and The Women of Christmas. A seasoned professional speaker and Bible study teacher, Liz has toured with Women of Faith, Extraordinary Women, and Women of Joy, and has spoken at more than 1,700 conferences in all fifty states of the United States and fifteen foreign countries. Liz is happily married to author Bill Higgs. They share their life together in a nineteenth-century farmhouse in Louisville, Kentucky.

SUMMARY

Famed athlete and bestselling author of Shaken helps young Christians embrace their identity and God-given purpose—even when life is hard.

Tebow is the beloved college football champion who was drafted in the first round of the 2010 NFL Draft, but after a miracle season and playoff appearance with the Denver Broncos, he experienced a disappointing end to his pro career with three other teams. In his life, Tebow’s won big victories and felt the depths of failure. In Shaken: The Young Reader’s Edition, Tebow writes about how neither the highs nor the lows of his life define him. Ultimately, only God can do that. Tebow’s goal in this writing is to inspire young people to find their identity and purpose in God too.

The Build
Designing My Life of Choppers, Family, and Faith

Paul Teutul Jr.
Publicist: Beverly Rykerd | 719-268-1935
brykerd@penguinrandomhouse.com

The inside story of the popular TV reality series American Chopper. Includes a 32-page color-photo section.

Paul Teutul Jr. is arguably the most creative builder of custom chopper motorcycles in the world. His talents were revealed to millions of TV viewers worldwide on American Chopper, as well as later on a spinoff series, American Chopper Senior vs. Junior. The Build gives the reader a look at Paul Jr.’s life behind the camera, which included volcanic conflict with his father and business mentor, Paul Sr. Using his own story of improbable success as an illustration, Paul Jr. offers insights on how anyone can find and activate hidden talents. In a charming, often-humorous way, The Build is a rallying cry to unleash God-designed creativity and live life to the fullest.

AUTHOR BIO
PAUL TEUTUL JR. was just 27 when American Chopper: Jet Bike premiered on the Discovery Channel, featuring “Paulie” and his father, Paul Sr., building custom choppers. The intrinsic family dynamics of the show so captivated audiences that a full series following the Teutuls and their business, Orange County Choppers, soon followed and entertained millions for a decade. Today, Paul runs his own Paul Jr. Designs, which produces custom bikes for a variety of individual and corporate clients. He lives with his wife, Rachael, and son, Hudson, in New York State.

Living Out God’s Love for All His Children

Nick Vujicic
Publicist: Brett Benson | 719-264-5661
bbenson@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY
Drawing on his worldwide experiences, Nick reveals how nothing is as exciting and satisfying as introducing others to Jesus.

New York Times bestselling author and world-renowned motivational speaker Nick Vujicic is known worldwide as the man without arms and legs who personifies a “can do” spirit. Now in greater detail, he explains how the example of Jesus Christ motivates him to travel and speak broadly because the “good news” of the gospel is just too good to keep quiet! Although the world has so many problems, no challenge is too great for the God who promises to move mountains. Using compelling stories from his own experience, Nick shares the heart of his message, the motivation behind all he does, and something that he believes the world needs now more than ever before: A faith in Jesus Christ that moves people to act and make the world a better place.

AUTHOR BIO
NICK VUJICIC is an evangelist, motivational speaker, author, and the director of Life Without Limbs, a nonprofit that advances the gospel of Jesus Christ and helps alleviate suffering worldwide. Nick regularly speaks to large crowds on overcoming obstacles and achieving dreams. Daring to Hope
Finding God's Goodness in the Broken and the Beautiful

Katie Davis Majors

Publicist: Lisa Beech | 719-268-1917 | lbeech@penguinrandomhouse.com

SUMMARY

The bestselling author of Kisses from Katie details her life in Uganda as the adoptive mother to 13 girls and describes how crushing heartache has led her to a new understanding of hope.

Picking up where she left off in her New York Times bestselling book, Katie Davis Majors invites readers into her home and community to witness how the miraculous and the mundane blend together to create an unexpected picture of God’s glory and grace. New readers and longtime followers will find themselves alternately celebrating and crying as they witness a life of faith where death and loss are daily companions alongside miracles and joy. Readers will recognize their own questions and doubts in Majors’s descriptions of seeking evidence of God’s grace in both the beauty and brokenness of life. Through the wrestling, Majors finds an unshakable hope, one that she prays her readers will find as well in the pages of her story.

AUTHOR BIO

KATIE DAVIS MAJORS first traveled to Uganda in her senior year in high school and was immediately captivated by the people and the culture. Now, almost 10 years later, she is a 28-year-old married mother of 14, founder of Amazima Ministries, which cares for vulnerable children in Uganda, and author of Kisses from Katie, which has been translated into 11 languages.
